

MANY NAMES PRESENTED BY WATSON

THEY ARE WILLING • TO TESTIFY BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE

Gives List of Over One Hundred Names—One Soldier Says Fourteen Soldiers Were Thrown Overboard from Transport—Letters tell of Many More Illegal Executions

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The names of more than 100 former service men were presented today to a senate committee by Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, who asked that they be brought here to testify in the investigation of charges that American soldiers had been put to death in France without the right of trial by court martial.

There was no intimation as to how many on the list would be summoned, the committee explaining that it would sift thru the names next week.

Assurance, however, was given Senator Watson that every person would be called if he believed they were prepared to give testimony directly bearing on the charges.

Compared with the turbulent meeting yesterday, the session was comparatively tame. Senator Watson, the only witness read extracts from many letters in which soldiers declared they knew of numbers of illegal executions.

One soldier wrote that on a transport taking him to France fourteen men were thrown overboard and drowned for no apparent reason.

CANNOT SETTLE PACKING STRIKE BY ARBITRATION

Statement is Issued by Vice President of Armours

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The strike of packing house employees thru-out the country cannot be settled by arbitration, Arthur Meeker, vice president of Armour & Co., declared tonight in a statement outlining the present situation in the country's stock yards.

Mr. Meeker declared that the packers had agreed with their employees over wages through the employe representation plan recently instituted and that consequently there were no differences between the packers and their employees.

The few workers who have walked out can do as they please," Mr. Meeker said tonight. "The great bulk of the employees are well satisfied and have remained loyal to their employers. There are no men we are interested in and since there is no need for arbitration where there is no dispute, naturally we are not seeking an arbitrator."

Asks President's Aid
KANSAS CITY, Dec. 10.—Mayor Harry B. Burton, of Kansas City, Kan., today telegraphed President Harding, stating that the packing house strike is affecting public welfare and asking the president whether there is a possibility of arbitrating the strike through the federal government.

Mayor Burton's action was taken after a conference with packing house union officials who called at the mayor's office. Various aspects of the local strike situation were discussed, the mayor said, and the suggestion that a test case be made of the strike in the Kansas court of industrial relations, was declined by the labor union officials, who stated that they could accept arbitration only on a national basis.

The union men held mass meetings this afternoon. Newspaper representatives were not admitted.

WORK OUT PLAN FOR FUNDING OF FOREIGN DEBT

Would Bear 5% Interest, Mature Not Later Than 1947

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Funding of the eleven billion dollar debt owed the United States by foreign governments into obligations maturing not later than June 15, 1947, and bearing interest at a rate of not less than five per cent would be authorized under the funding bill as finally approved today by the senate finance committee. Chairman Penrose announced that these and other provisions written into the house bill had been agreed to by Secretary Mellon, who attended the committee session and by the Democratic members of the committee. He added that the rewritten bill would be reported to the senate on Monday and called up Tuesday by Senator McCumber, ranking Republican on the committee. Interest on the new obligations would be paid semi-annually and the minimum rate which would be permitted under the bill—five per cent—is the rate on the existing obligations, most of which are in the form of the notes of the foreign powers.

Under another amendment approved by the committee four of the five members of the commission which is to conduct the funding negotiations would have to be confirmed by the senate. The provisions making the secretary of the treasury chairman of the commission was retained.

All of the changes in the house measure, it was explained were in line with those proposed by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the finance committee. The house bill left to the commission the question of the maturity dates of the obligations and the amount of interest to be paid and proposed senate confirmation of only such members of the commission as were not cabinet officers.

Parts of the house bill approved would provide that:

No part of either the principal or interest of any of the debts could be cancelled.

The bonds of one government could not be accepted in payment of the debts of another government.

That the authority of the commission expire in three years after the passage of the act and that the commission make annual report to congress such reports to be included in the regular annual report made by the secretary of the treasury at the beginning of each regular session of congress.

The total owed to the United States, principal and interest, by the foreign nations is $11,329,281,928 including $294,245,357 in principal and interest from Russia.

The Georgia senator undertook to show, and indeed announced he would prove, that the war department list of eleven executions did not include all of the men illegally hanged or shot to death by order of superior officers.

A picture of what seemed to be a gallows in France, on which a rope was being hooked around the neck of a condemned soldier with several officers standing on the platform and scores on the ground below, was given to the committee by the senator who testified that it was taken by a colonel now in the service. The officer's name was not revealed.

Col. Walter E. Bethel, assistant judge advocate general, from whom the committee obtained the list of eleven legal executions, was instructed to check over the Watson list and see if any were the same.

The commander of a legion post at Westville, Oklahoma, the senator said had sent him the name of a man ready to testify that twenty one Americans were executed in France without trial. Another soldier wrote that more than six hundred had been illegally killed in France.

"Did these men tell you why the soldiers were killed," Senator Brandegee asked.

"In each case of ruthless killing," the senator replied, "it was stated that the men were shot down because they were fagged and unable to walk."

Mr. Brandegee suggested that a soldier could be shot without trial for desertion in the face of the enemy, and Colonel Bethel said there was no written law for the battlefield, that the rules of the battlefield required summary action.

GERMANY FAILS TO MAKE HER PAYMENT

BODY IDENTIFIED AS THAT OF SLAUGHTER

(By The Associated Press)
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 10.—Any doubt that the body of a man found dead in the woods 29 miles from Benton, Ark., this morning, is that of Tom Slaughter, outlaw, who escaped in a sensational manner from the state prison here Friday morning, was removed late today.

A positive identification was made in Benton by Edward Dempsey, son of Warden E. P. Dempsey, of the penitentiary, and Burl C. Rotenberry, Little Rock chief of police. Both recognized the dead man as Slaughter and Chief Rotenberry further added to the identification by means of finger prints.

The body is being held at Benton by Saline county authorities. The inquest is set for 2 p. m. Monday, before Justice J. B. Hilman.

During the late afternoon, the corpse was placed on exhibition on a wagon on one of the principal streets of the town and was viewed by large crowds.

COURTS TEMPERED

Chicago, Dec. 10.—The decisions of the courts today are tempered by the spirit of the times. Chief Justice Clyde E. Stone of the Illinois supreme court said tonight at banquet given in honor of the justices of the supreme court by the Illinois State Bar association.

Officers Shoot Up Oklahoma Bandit

(By The Associated Press)
MIAMI, Oklahoma, Dec. 10.—Two men with revolvers in each hand late today slipped in at the rear door of the Bank of Cardin, at Cardin, Oklahoma, while three of the bank officials were counting the bank's cash. About $5,000 had been counted when the bandits appeared and commanded the officials to "put 'em up."

Thet bank officials were ordered into the vault and gave alarm by pressing a button within the vault.

Officers had been waiting four weeks for the holdup having been tipped off by a "stool pigeon." When the bandits reached the rear door they were commanded to halt and at once opened fire. The officers returned the fire and Clyde Butler of Pitcher, Okla., (tell dead. Close beside him John Dunham of Commerce, Okla., sprawled to the ground with three bullets in his back. He is not expected to live. Dunham is supposed to have been standing at the door to act as a guard. When the third bandit encountered the fire of the officers he turned and ran back thru the bank and escaped by leaping thru a plate glass window.

Officers believe a fourth bandit escaped in a motor car which was seen near the bank. It was said to have had a Tulsa, Okla., license.

The money was found in a sack near the slain man. The sack contained about $1,000 in silver, the weight of the coin hampering the man's efforts to escape, officers said.

SPEAKERS ATTACK PEACE TERMS OF GREAT BRITAIN

Friends of Irish Freedom Pan British Government

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Attacks on Great Britain and the peace terms she has offered Ireland, voiced by speakers at the convention of the friends of Irish freedom were cheered to the echo by more than 1,700 delegates representing every state of the union.

Daniels S. Cohan, state supreme court justice, who was elected permanent convention chairman, received an ovation when he declared the Irish in America would never be satisfied and would never cease work until Ireland was granted a government with the same institutions and the same freedom that America has.

Justice Cohan also attacked British influences which he said were seeking to control American opinion.

"We give notice at home, as to her representatives in Ireland, America," he declared, "that President Harding and Mr. Hughes are not going to be able to have their present scheme of alliance put thru any more than Mr. Wilson and Mr. House put thru their league of nations."

Edward P. McSweeney of Boston told the convention of work the Knights of Columbus are doing in an effort to bring about revision of public school histories, which he declares omitted important phases of the early struggle of the American colonies with Great Britain.

Other speakers included L. Lindsay Crawford, editor of the Montreal Statesman; Patrick Donnell of Chicago, and Professor William Lacey of Pittsburgh.

John P. Grace of Charleston, S. C., was elected a vice-president.

BOARD WELCOMES IN JUNCTION SUIT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The injunction suit of the Pennsylvania railroad company against the United States railroad labor board is welcomed because it will definitely decide the board's powers and the manner in which its decisions can be enforced, Judge R. L. Barton, chairman of the railroad labor board said in a statement tonight, asserting that it is important to all and particularly to the general public that the board's powers be fixed.

The injunction issued yesterday by Judge K. M. Landis and enjoining the board from handing down decisions in disputed shop crafts cases affecting the Pennsylvania, expired today and was not continued when the board promised to hold its decision in abeyance, pending a hearing on Dec. 21. The board today announced that James M. Beck, solicitor-general, will represent its interests at the hearing.

SWEDISH KING
CONFERS HONOR
Stockholm, Dec. 10.—A solemn ceremony was held today at the Musical Academy when King Gustave awarded Noble prizes in literature and chemistry to Anatole France, noted French author and Professor Walther Nernst of the University of Berlin, respectively. The awarding took place in the presence of a brilliant gathering of representatives of Art, Literature and Politics.

New York, Dec. 10.—Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas, criticized Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor in an address before the Brooklyn chamber of commerce today for roaring "at the president because the president advocates an industrial tribunal."

"Gompers never stood for a program that helped the workers unless that program was introduced by the workingman," he declared.

IRISH AFFAIRS IN ABEYANCE UNTIL MIDDLE OF WEEK

Nothing Known Yet as to Attitude of Ulster

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Dec. 10.—No striking developments in Irish affairs are expected before the middle of next week. The prime minister had further meeting today with Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, who conferred with Austen Chamberlain, the government leader in the house and will report to his cabinet in Belfast on Monday.

In the meantime nothing is likely to be known of Ulster's attitude toward the settlement, more especially since the revelation of the split in the Sinn Fein which was received with a show of satisfaction in Ulster.

The most significant news of the day was the convening of the meeting of the Catholic Hierarchy on Tuesday which, in view of the opinions already expressed by the bishops is expected to make a decided pronouncement in favor of the treaty.

About 120 members of the Dail Eirann will attend the Wednesday meeting and of these at least eighty, according to the estimates of Arthur Griffith and his followers will vote for the treaty. Even this substantial majority in the opinion of the same men will be exceeded should the Dail Eirann, as is considered quite possible to decide to refer the question to a plebiscite of the Irish people.

There seems to be a determination on the part of both Sinn Feiners and the government that the truce shall not be violated. The belief seems to prevail in Belfast that should the disagreement in the Sinn Fein result in the retirement of Mr. DeValera bringing Mr. Griffith to the premiership with Mr. Collins as finance minister a combination between the north and south would prove easier than if Mr. DeValera were head of the southern government.

FARRINGTON IS STILL OPPOSED TO PRESIDENT LEWIS

Says Illinois Miners Will Help the Kansas
Strikers

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 10.—Officials of the Illinois Mine Workers could not be located here tonight, but employes in state headquarters here were of the belief that yesterday's statement, repudiated today at Indianapolis by State President Frank Farrington, was prepared by Secretary-Treasurer Walter Nesbit, who has left for his home at Carbondale.

Mr. Farrington's statement today, it was pointed out, is in effect the same as that issued at state headquarters yesterday. While declaring the Illinois miners have no intention of breaking away from the international union Mr. Farrington is quoted as saying "we're going to go ahead and help the Kansas miners."

It is presumed here Mr. Farrington meant financial help. If so, his attitude, it was said, is nothing else but defiance of the international board's order that financial aid to Kansas strikers be discontinued.

WANT NATIONAL CREDIT PROVIDED

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, Dec. 10.—In a plea before the economic parliament today for the speedy enactment of a law providing for national credit among the industrial, commercial and financial interests, Chancellor Wirth admitted that the government was awaiting the developments of the few days with a "feeling of suspense, mingled with some hope."

The opposition of the industrialist to the pending measure resulted in action being deferred until next Tuesday, despite urging by the chancellor that the issues be disposed of now if only for its moral effect on the negotiations proceeding at London between the allied statesmen with respect to reparations.

FAR EAST AGREEMENT ANNOUNCED BY LODGE TO PLENARY SESSION

New Arrangement Consigns Anglo-Japanese Alliance to Scrap Heap—Treaty Must Be Ratified by Senate—Not Like League of Nations Document—Look for Opposition

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A new quadruple agreement to preserve peace in the waters of the Pacific was announced to the world today by the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France.

As a consideration of the international re-alignment, Great Britain and Japan agreed to consign to the scrap heap the Anglo-Japanese alliance, long viewed with apprehension in both America and Asia.

The provisions of the agreement, which is in the form of a ten year treaty, are confined to the "region of the Pacific Ocean."

Under them, the four powers are to respect each others' island possessions and to meet in consultation if a dispute arises or if the rights of any of the four are threatened by any other power.

Announcement of the treaty terms was made at a plenary session of the arms conference by Senator Lodge of the American delegation and was followed by expressions of approval by the plenipotentiaries of Great Britain, France, Japan, Italy, China, Belgium, the Netherlands and Portugal.

To be binding on the United States the treaty must be ratified by the senate several of whose members withheld comment tonight pending a further study of the text. Open war was declared on it by some of the irreconcilable group of the Versailles treaty fight, but Republican leaders and some Democrats declared ratification was certain.

The signatures of the representatives of the powers have not yet been affixed to the document and there is an intimation that they may be withheld until the question of naval ratio has been settled definitely. The naval situation remains unchanged pending word from Tokyo, but there is general confidence that approval of the American "5-5-3" plan will be made unanimous in the very near future.

In lieu of signature, the principal delegates have put their initials on the official copy of the treaty and Senator Lodge said tonight this act of affirmation was to be interpreted as meaning that the document has been "approved to all intents and purposes."

The treaty agreement is expected in itself to hasten a decision not only on the naval ratio, but on all the other issues before the arms conference. The delegates believe they are over the top of the hill and a British spokesman went so far tonight as to characterize today's session as "practically the break up of the conference" so far as major considerations are concerned.

One of the first impulses of some of the senators was to compare and contrast the treaty with the league of nations covenant which so lately was the center of a bitter senate fight.

Not Like Peace League.
An official spokesman of the American delegation pointed out tonight that a feature of the covenant on which attack was concentrated was its failure to provide for the settlement of disputes.

GRIDIRON CLUB ANNUAL MEETING SATURDAY NIGHT

Famous Newspaper Organization Goes
Thru Stunts

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The Gridiron club, the oldest organization of Washington correspondents tonight gave what probably will be acknowledge its most notable dinner.

About its table were brought together all the great world figures at the arms conference and almost as many world notables as were gathered at the conference of Versailles.

President Harding, Vice President Coolidge, the cabinet, practically all the resident diplomatic corps, the principal delegates attending the arms conference, members of congress, captains of finance and industry and newspapermen from all over the world were guests.

Someone described the dinner as a plenary session of the men who really hold in their hands the forces and powers which are actuating the chief nations at the Washington conference. But unlike a plenary session of the arms conference, this one was strictly closed, rather than open, for it is the rule that reporters never are present at a Gridiron club dinner. Under this pledge of confidence the national figures present delivered notably frank and informing speeches.

The entertainment was attuned to the international character of the gathering. In treating the arms conference the club for once abandoned its usual method of satire, wit and humor and dealt with the subject in a thoroughly dignified and respectful fashion. The keynote of the proceedings was sounded when the guests and members were addressed at the opening as follows:

Pays Homage to Big Five
"Five great powers, meeting here in Washington, have achieved in a month's time more than all the world achieved for disarmament in a quarter of a century of aspiration and effort. To these five powers the Gridiron club tonight pays homage. We feel that it is fitting for us to look upon these powers, banded in common cause, whose work here is transforming the great vision into fact. The symbols we shall show you are not those of war, but of peace. Tonight they stand together as closely bound by ties of brotherhood as they were in the day of the world tragedy. We ask you, gentlemen, to look upon them."

One by one, the silken banners of Japan, Italy, France, Great Britain and the United States were borne into the room, each

A news item from a Missouri city recounts the theft of a quantity of hides. That should be considered good news, for only a few weeks ago hides were quoted so low that they weren't really considered worth stealing.

Senator Watson, who has made such wild charges about the number of United States soldiers condemned and executed overseas without trial, is showing in committee hearings his impetuosity and lack of self-control. He condemned one recent incident by saying that his southern blood was aroused. That's an excuse that doesn't count for much. A man of mature years should have acquired a reasonable amount of self-control, no matter where he was born.

It is estimated that the American relief commission, by Christmas, will be feeding 1,000,000 Russian children. This act should be held in grateful remembrance in coming years, and enable the Russian citizens of the next decade to have their own definite ideas about governments, helpful and otherwise. The trouble is that it will take more than gifts of food during a period of months to counteract the ignorance of years.

Statistics from life insurance companies show that 22 per cent of their investments are now in real estate mortgages and that the investments in railroad securities have declined from 35 per cent to 26 per cent. These figures prove the greater faith of the insurance company officials in real estate values and their feeling that railroad investments are not as safe even as was true a few years ago.

Evidently the railroad question must be solved in some way so that stability is given to investments in railroad enterprises. As said so many times, the railroad business is basic and the way of healthy finance must be found.

The Sergeant York fund for paying off the mortgage on his Tennessee farm is growing. The chances are by Christmas that sufficient money will have been raised for this good cause.

Without thought of criticism of this real hero, or of those who have inaugurated the mortgage-paying movement, it is unfortunate that Sergeant York cannot be made to understand how much good he could accomplish for the people of his own locality if he would but accept some of the legitimate business offers that have been made.

Because of a native timidity and an inability to see hints from the general viewpoint, the sergeant has declined time and again to appear on the lecture platform in vaudeville or in the movies. Without seeking personal aggrandizement or wealth, he could no doubt by one of these methods have great earning power and the funds thus available would be of great use in giving the people of his home area the educational advantages that they so greatly need.

Mirror of Business of the Week
In Chicago and the Middle West

(Chicago Journal of Commerce News Service.)

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Business in the Chicago area and the Middle West generally was at a noticeably cheerful pitch the past week by reason of widespread industrial improvement.

Steel Corporation plants have increased operations in some cases to as high as 60 per cent of capacity and there are indications of still further gains forthwith.

Railroad business of importance continues to be placed and the Chicago area and the Middle West generally was at a noticeably cheerful pitch the past week by reason of widespread industrial improvement.

Still further encouragement was seen by business men in continued advances in the prices of bonds, the outstanding feature for the week in the investment market. Several large sized flotations of new financing that were brought out during the week attracted liberal participation here.

The mid-western stock exchanges, with the exception of the Chicago Stock Exchange, showed increased strength during the past week with motor issues leading the rise. Attacks on packing and mail-order stocks on the Chicago Stock Exchange depressed prices to the lowest point for several years during the early part of the week. The week-end trading, however, effected slight recoveries.

Foreign Countries Buying Wheat Here

Chicago as a world market was emphasized significantly in grain circles during the day. The world trade idea was brought out by the buying of American wheat by England, out of the market for many months, and there was buying of wheat by other countries that had been supplying wants in Canada and other territories. Price advances were retarded somewhat by increased farm marketing due to farmers need of money to meet taxes and holiday expenses but this liquidation appeared at the close to be about exhausted. The live stock trade was somewhat disorganized on account of the butchers and meat cutters strike. Fortunately there was a broad outlet on shipping accounts which fully compensated for the lighter buying on the part of local killers, officials declared. The cattle market stands as high as a week ago on the bulk of the medium to good steers but a little lower on cows and heifers.

Feeding steers were 25 cents higher. Hog shippers had broken all records in the volume of business during the week and the supply and sustaining prices to a steady level. Lambs had advanced $1 on a general shipping demand with values at the highest point since July.

The lumber industry is rejoining in being in a far better position in regard to new bookings at this time than it was a year ago. Reviewing the figures from the mills for the week ending Nov. 26, the latest figures received, the National Association shows that the orders in hand received amount to 145,000,000, compared with 95,000,000 a year ago.

Coal Trade at Low Ebb

While the coal business of the city was admitted by wholesalers and retailers to be at one of its lowest ebb at present, the apparent improvement in the steel mills and foundries gave promise of some betterment in the near future. Retail yards are still choked with coal. The moderate weather is largely responsible for the inactive condition of the trade.

Excessive dullness was the feature of the land market in the last week. The glycerine market witnessed a revival of interest. Considerable activity developed, particularly in chemically pure glycerine.

Linseed meal was strong, advancing sharply on good demand and moderate offerings. Linseed oil was fairly active and steady. The paint materials market evinced a little new life. Turpentine kept fluctuating in price. The dullness incident to inventory to time continued, however, with some slight changes in prices.

KNIGHTS OF THE SQAURE TABLE

Four reel drama. This is the best Boy Scout photoplay that has been produced. Endorsed by National Headquarters, Boy Scouts of America, New York. It is the story of boy gangsters and embryo thieves at war with the police and Boy Scouts. The leader has gotten his idea from a copy of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, left him by his mother, but he set out to do wrong instead of right wrongs.

There's plenty of action and a lively fight between the Scouts and the street boys and in the end the latter join the troop and become useful, patriotic scouts. Story written and directed by James Wilder, who plays the part of Troop Leader.

The remarkable story of a girl lured by the flame of Free Love—fluttering about the fascinating light without a thought that her beautiful wings might be singed. The Free Love doctrine is being spread today especially from the Bohemian quarters of the great cities. It is painted as a beautiful ideal; marriage as unromantic, sordid—sometimes by theorists, more often by men with a motive. BUT what of the young girls enticed by its glittering flare? What of them? Every one of you will want to know how it works out in real life.

The Romance of An Up-to-Date Ranchman

See TOM MIX in

"After Your Own Heart"

The Tale of a Modern Ranch Owner Whose Cowboys

Used Airplanes and Autos in Place of Bronchos

Luke Bramley, owner of the Double Bit Ranch, had no use for new and improved methods in cattle raising. What had been good enough for his father was good enough for him. He could not be swayed from this attitude, even by his pretty daughter, Loretta; and he was seconded by his foreman, Tex Marlowe—a crook who had secret reasons of his own and an evil admiration for Loretta.

A source of constant exasperation to Bramley was the adjoining Rolling G Ranch, which was run on up-to-date lines, with advantage taken of every new device supplied by science for the betterment of the business. The foreman, Peter Rudock, maneuvered about over the territory in an airplane. The cowboys, instead of being mounted on horses, dashed about in autos. The contrast in methods and results was as striking as was the difference in the men and the cattle.

But the sorest point with Bramley was a valued water hole to which both ranches advanced a claim, but which Bramley swore should not be invaded by electric wires of the Rolling G. This was a point of continual conflict.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear sister, Ruth A. Brockhouse, who died Nov. 3, 1921.

We have lost our darling sister. She has bid us all adieu. She has gone to live in Heaven. And her form is lost to view. Oh, that dear one, how we loved her.

Oh, how hard to give her up! But an angel came down for her, and removed her from our flock.

Thru all pains at times she'd smile
A smile of heavenly birth;
And when the angels called her,
She smiled farewell to earth.
Heaven retaineth now our treasure.

Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger,
Where our darling sister sleeps.

We miss you from our home, dear sister
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss your kind and willing hand

Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without you,
We miss you everywhere.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the words,
"We must forever part."
Dearest loved one, we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished,
'Till we see thy Heavenly face.

ROUGH SLEDDING
PROMISED TREATY
IN U. S. SENATE

Reed of Missouri Voices
Open Opposition to Measure

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Indications of opposition in the United States senate to ratification of the four power Pacific treaty developed today within a few hours after the new pact was announced to the world at a plenary session of the armament conference.

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, one of the irreconcilables in the long and successful fight against the treaty of Versailles in a formal statement denounced the new quadruple understanding as "treacherous, treasonable and damnable" and predicted that there would "be a light and a hot one."

Other senators of the irreconcilable group for the most part withheld comment, but speaking privately an unfriendly attitude toward the treaty, while Senator Reed said he did not expect to make the fight alone.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, leading Republican irreconcilable, was one of those declining to comment, locking himself in his office with a copy of the document.

Republicans generally, including most of the leaders, however, predicted ratification of the treaty by an overwhelming vote and in this prediction to a greater or less extent were joined by a number of Democrats, including leaders on that side of the senate chamber.

Democratic senators in a number of instances said they did not attach the importance to the document as a peace measure that was claimed in Republican quarters and described it as "innocuous" and as having a great similarity to the league of nations covenant.

Some Democrats pointed to Article 2 of the new treaty which binds to signatories if their rights in the Pacific Islands, "are threatened by the aggressive action of any other power," to communicate "with one another fully and frankly in order to arrive at an understanding as to the most efficient measure to be taken, jointly or separately, to meet the exigencies of the particular situation. This, they said, differed but little from Article 10 of the league covenant which the Republicans found most objectionable.

FOUND GUILTY OF
SWINDLING MERCHANT

PEORIA, Ill., Dec. 10.—Cornelius Gleason was this afternoon found guilty of having swindled Henry F. Kath of Muscatine, Iowa merchant of $10,000 by means of a confidence game. Sentence was withheld until the end of this term of court.

Gleason was alleged to have been the principal operator in a brokerage deal so engineered as to make Kath believe he had won $121,000 by investments. When Kath produced $10,000 to show that he could have paid if the "market" had gone against him, Edward L. Thomas of Minneapolis, one of the alleged members of the swindlers disappeared with Kath's money. Thomas and Earl Miller, also indicted have never been located by officers.

MILWAUKEE MAN
HEADS YACHTERS

Chicago, Dec. 10.—James Barr of Milwaukee was elected president of the Lake Michigan Yachting Association at the Twentieth annual meeting here today.

Fred D. Porter of Chicago was elected treasurer and Charles Coates of Chicago secretary. Discussion for defining the standing of members as professionals or amateurs was postponed until the January meeting.

WHY SHOULDN'T HE GET RID OF HIS FLEES?

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Walter Marlow, a negro, was arrested today on a disorderly conduct charge when officials of the county building asserted he was found in a corridor burning the fleas from his clothing. Marlow was found near the entrance to the health department where he had hung his coat on a nail and was using a paper torch to rid the garment of its unwelcome inhabitants officials said.

WILL REFORM CHURCH

Salem church, located a few miles west of Springfield near Riddle Hill, is to be re-dedicated today. Rev. E. L. Pletcher district superintendent will preach the sermon and will have general charge of the services of the day. A basket dinner will be served and the program throughout the day will be of a kind of great interest to the members of the church and congregation.

GRIDIRON CLUB
ANNUAL MEETING

by a bearer attired in the military uniform of the country represented and each heralded by the national anthem of that country, played by the Marine Band. Every flag was received with all present standing. When the five had been grouped, it was announced:

"To these five flags, united in the task that a barrier against war shall be built high and strong and imperishable, the Gridiron club offers its salute."

To the music of "The Star Spangled Banner," the flags were marched off and the gaiety of the evening began.

From that point, however, the entertainment was of the usual Gridiron brand, with "take-offs" on current situations and subjects.

A wireless apparatus ticked off messages from "The good ship Normalcy," giving a variety of report. "No bars" were reported from around Milwaukee and St. Louis; "Ethiopian—no Equinoxial storms" were reported in the vicinity of Birmingham; at one time "Chief Engineer George Harvey" was rocking the boat.

At a book stall in the dining room, was offered among others H. G. Wells, "Outline of History." The author, one of the guests who wrote a historic account of pre-historic times, James P. Tumulty's literary efforts did not escape and he was described as knowing his business better than Baswell. Mr. Wells, Mr. Tumulty and H. Wickham Steed of the London Times were called to their feet to make acknowledgments as their works were referred to.

FEDERAL TAX JOKES.

Federal taxation furnished its share of jokes. It was remarked that the house and senate had declined to "apply the tax on gas wells" to themselves.

A take off on the Ku Kux Klan was presented when several hooded, white robed, figures mounted on hobby horses galloped in an initiated Robert McGinter, Washington correspondent of the Pittsburgh Gazette Times as a member.

At one stage a large key was found in the dining room, having a large tag attached, bearing this inscription: "Key to the back door of the League of Nations. To be slipped in the pocket of Secretary Hughes when he is not looking." (Signed) Lloyd George.

A MESSENGER WHICH CONFERRED

with Secretary Hughes as to whether he wished to accept the key announced that Mr. Hughes "declines the key and gives notice that he has all his pockets sewed up."

Chief Justice Taft, always a favorite with the club, got a demonstration all his own when he was sung to his feet with a ditty from the Gridiron club's singers entitled "Look to the silver lining."

The only toast ever drunk at a Gridiron club dinner is to the president of the United States. The dinner closed with Mr. Harding's speech, which of course, was not reported.

James P. Hornaday, chief of the Indianapolis News Bureau in Washington, was elected president of the club at the annual election held prior to the dinner.

FAR EAST AGREEMENT
ANNOUNCED BY LODGE
TO PLENARY SESSION

centrated is omitted from the four power peace agreement. In Article Ten of the league the members agreed to "respect and preserve each other's territorial integrity," but in the new treaty the pledge is to "respect" territorial rights in the Pacific.

The omission of the guarantee to "preserve" the integrity of foreign nations is declared by the American delegates to constitute an all-important distinction between an alliance and a compact for peaceful solution of future controversies.

In presenting the treaty Senator Lodge said it had been accepted by the United States subject to a satisfactory conclusion of the negotiations now proceeding over the Island of Yap, and also with reservations relative to the mandated islands south of the equator. It was explained by American spokesmen later that the attitude of the American government in respect to mandates had been in no way modified by the treaty.

At its open session today the arms conference also gave formal approval to several of the resolutions on Chinese problems adopted by the far eastern committee of the whole.

The "four points" of Elihu Root, the declaration on extra-territoriality and the agreement relative to China's neutrality and future trouble affecting her were included in the resolutions thus agreed formally on the records of the conference. In outlining the scope of the four power agreement, the spokesmen of all the participating nations emphasized that it is to apply only to the Pacific Islands and in no way to China or any other part of the Asiatic mainland.

In the view of some of the American delegates it applies not only to Hawaii, but also to all of the Islands which make up the Japanese Empire.

AMERICAN CLUB OF
OXFORD TO AFFILIATE

Will Become Unit of Oxford University League of National Union

OXFORD, ENGL., Dec. 10.—The American club of Oxford university has decided to affiliate to the Oxford university league of nations union, and to send three delegates to the dummy "league of nations" assembly which will meet three times a term at the Oxford union. L. J. Burlingame, Wisconsin and Ortel; W. R. Burwell, Rhode Island and Merton; and R. M. Carson, Delaware and Balliol, were elected as representatives.

It was explained that the house would view with favor an alliance between Great Britain and the United States with special reference to the Pacific, was debated and defeated.

The general sentiment of the speakers in the negative was that Americans should hope for a foreign policy with Great Britain in place of the Anglo-Japanese treaty which would simply be stepping out of the frying pan into the fire, that it would be preferable to come to an amicable tripartite agreement with Japan and Great Britain which would take especial notice of China's welfare and the Far East policy open to all China on a reasonable basis of normalcy and law.

INCIDENT CASTLE IN
BRECHIN, SCOTLAND

BRECHIN, Scotland, Dec. 10.—Kinnauld castle, home of Lord Southesk, which was recently destroyed by fire, was an historic fourteenth century structure and one of the finest examples of medieval Gothic and Italian architecture in Great Britain.

There was a famous picture gallery of 170 old masters, many of which were burned. The library, only a small part of which has been saved, consisted of 6,000 volumes, comprising costly missals and some very valuable early Shakespeare editions. Some of the furniture destroyed dated from the early Scottish kings.

Speaker Says She Needs

Nerves

(By The Associated Press)

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Dec. 10.—The whole world is in a disturbed psychological state, and needs an opiate to steady its nerves, Judge Roger S. Galor of Mount Pleasant, Ia., president of the Universalist general convention, asserted here tonight at the opening session of the eleventh convention of the national federation of religious liberals.

"Everything is questioned," Judge Galor said. "There are no longer any orthodox theories in political economic. Consistency of opinion has vanished. Stiff conservatives are advocating the wildest radicals in their zeal to stay the rising tide of Socialism. Staid high churchmen are begging their parishioners to turn the church into a vaudeville to attract worshippers. Creeds hoary with age are forgotten, forms of worship that answered the deep cry of the human soul in vanished centuries are quietly laid away. Sanctity no longer rules rebellious hearts and the cross itself is scarcely more than a symbol of a beautiful but fading idealism."

Universalist and Unitarians, together with liberal Congregationalists, Friends and Jews are presented on the three day program of the convention.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Dec. 10.—The whole world is in a disturbed psychological state, and needs an opiate to steady its nerves, Judge Roger S. PURDUE EXPECTS TO REGAIN PRESTIGE

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 10.—Purdue university will be ready in another year or two to retrieve its lost prestige on the gridiron. This is the opinion of athletic authorities here. Although in the number of games won the past season was disappointing, followers of the fighting spirit, which they declare, was characteristic of Purdue teams of a decade ago, but which has been noticeably absent in recent years.

Although twelve men will be lost to the football squad by graduation, there will be a number of veterans back next year and with the recruits from this year's freshman team, it is expected there will be little difficulty in rounding up an experienced eleven. Five of the twelve who will get sheepskins were regulars this year.

Ford Birk is one of the stars who will be lost. Birk, during his three years on the team, has gained fame as a tackle and center. Captain "Zeb" Carman is another regular who will leave. Carman has held down an end position for two years.

Other regulars to go are Ray Miller, end; E. B. Wagner, halfback and J. E. Meeker, fullback. Some of the second string men who played in a number of games and who will be keenly missed are Bob Watson, E. S. Rife, W. L. Spencer, "Shorty" Macklin, C. E. Israel, J. C. Kepple and C. D. Merrill.

William H. Dietz, who coached the team last season, has not yet been engaged for next year. His work was considered satisfactory by the athletic authorities and it seems certain that he will be asked to take charge of the squad again next season.

LITON FARM SALE

The Linton Lorton farm land was sold under partition order by Master in Chancery English Saturday at the court house. The 80 acres is located a short distance east of Jacksonville and was purchased by James Alkire at $200 per acre. The farm is under lease for a three year period, a fact which had something to do with the price. In a re-appraisal the property was recently valued at $250 an acre.

Verdict in Maddox Divorce Suit
Neither Husband
Nor Wife—New Trial Asked in Bike Case.

The jury in the divorce suit of Henry A. Maddox against his wife Mrs. Blanche M. Maddox, returned a verdict declaring neither party to the suit entitled to a divorce. In the view of the jurors the charge of infidelity made by each was not proven by the evidence. Judge Smith instructed the jury in this case about three o'clock Saturday afternoon and an hour later the verdict had been returned.

Other Court Orders.
In the divorce suit of Mrs. Boush May Coddington against James H. Coddington, decree was rendered and the cause was stricken.

Final order was entered in the divorce suit of Irene O. Dover against Harvey G. Dover, in which decree was rendered and the cause stricken.

A like order was entered in the divorce suit of Mrs. Dorothy O. Woolsey vs. Norman Woolsey.

In the suit of Lillian Joyce, et al., vs. John E. Joyce, brought to set aside a will, the adult defendants called failed to answer and an order of default was taken.

In the divorce suit of Ada J. Stice against Burley L. Stice, motion was made by the complainant to set aside the verdict and for a new trial. In this case recently the jury found in favor of the defendant.

When Judge Smith adjourned court Saturday it was until Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The docket originally scheduled the trial of Ellsworth Pires for Monday but an effort was begun to secure a change of venue. It was understood yesterday that by an agreement an effort will be made to have Judge Jones come Monday, Dec. 19, to begin a hearing of the case.

INDIANA STATE U.

LOSES GRIDIRON STARS

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 10.—John Kyle's career as a football star at Indiana university ended with this season. The husky Crimson captain brought added fame to himself in his last appearance when, with his team facing a scoreless tie with Purdue, he grabbed a fumble and then booted a drop kick for the winning score.

Kyle and seven other gridiron luminaries made their last stand in the Purdue game. Coach E. O. Stehm will have to hunt next season for men to fill the places of Kyle at fullback, Vern Bell at left end, William McCaw at left guard, Ben Ross at center, Harry Donovan at left and right end, John E. Leonard at right tackle, Tom Burnett at quarterback and Ruel Williams at halfback. Bell, Burnett and Williams, although not varsity men, have played important parts in the contests of this season.

Stehm believes that from the ranks of this year's freshmen he will be able to pick some good men to fill in the holes which will be left when the eight players mentioned, leave school.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination for sheriff on the republican ticket, subject to the primary election to be held in April.

RESUME ANNUAL

ILLINOIS SEED SHOW

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 10.—The annual Illinois seed and grain show, which was interrupted by the war, will be resumed in January this year at the University of Illinois. It is announced.

The lapse of three years has brought many changes in the opinion of farmers and investigators as to what constitutes good seed corn. The show this year promises to be exceedingly interesting and instructive.

The utility score card is to be used as a basis for judging. It is expected that the present conditions making up the seed corn show will be the same as in the past. The show will be held at the University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill., from January 1 to 15, 1922.

In addition to the corn show which classes for northern, central and southern Illinois, there will be classes in the same divisions of the state for early and late maturing corn, and for hard winter wheat, and in the southern portion of the state, for red winter wheat. There will be a general class for soy beans in each of the three sections. Classes for red and mammoth alfalfa and sweet clover will also be provided but such shows will be open to the entire state.

PRICES IN FRANCE

PASS THE PEAK

Paris.—(By A. P.)—For the three years 1918, 1919 and 1920 enormous profits were realized in the French fur trade but the rise in prices seems to have passed its highest point this year.

A Hudson Bay otter cloak which cost 12,000 francs in April, 1920, can now be bought for 5,000. Rabbit skins which had reached fancy prices have returned to the normal, or before the war. Astrakhan and skunks are now only twice their pre-war prices and blue and white fox from three to four times.

Siberian sables and Peruvian chinchillas alone continue to increase in price, both being rare and much in demand. A sable cloak which cost 80,000 francs in 1913-14 would cost today 500,000.

CAN MAKE LIVING ON FARM IN LEAN TIMES

Stillwater, Okla.—(By A. P.)—That a living can be made on the farm, even in years of low prices, has been shown by Mrs. Laura Leatherwood, a widow of the Starr community, Adair county, according to George E. Davis, farm demonstration agent for that county.

Mrs. Leatherwood has a 30-acre farm six cows, a cream separator and 150 chickens. Davis says, Her income this year has been: Butter, $401.98; milk, $98 cream, $26.65; chickens sold, $28.76; eggs, $98.39; vegetables, $36.74; strawberries, $11.90; calves, $75; hogs, $59.07; total, $806.45. She has bought concentrated feeds to the extent of $221, leaving a net profit of $585.45.

The record doesn't include the vegetables, milk, butter and meat she produced and used herself.

KAISER'S SON-IN-LAW SUING BRUNSWICK

BRUNSWICK, Germany, Dec. 10.—The Duke of Brunswick, the former Kaiser's only son-in-law, has sued the state of Brunswick for 1,200,000 marks with the interest, which has accrued since the revolution, claiming that he has not received a penny from his estates although an annuity of 400,000 marks was agreed upon.

The duke complains that he is unable any longer to pay his living expenses unless he receives the stipulated amount.

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

SEVER RELATIONS WITH MILLIKIN

Illinois College Takes Action That Will Prevent Future Athletic Contests With Decatur School

It became known last night that Illinois college had severed athletic relations with Millikin university of Decatur. The action was taken by the faculty several days ago and notification was sent to the Millikin authorities.

Following the cancellation by Millikin of the annual football game and the subsequent action of the school's authorities relative to the post season game, the faculty of Illinois college felt that such action was justified.

The resolution, in effect, stated that, owing to the unsportsmanlike conduct in cancelling the football game on short notice, because of rain, and subsequent conduct in notifying Illinois college that the post-season game would not be played, it was thought best to sever athletic relations with Millikin.

The game in question was the only one in the United States that was cancelled on account of the weather on that date. In fact, Mr. Wann, himself, stated that it was the first time in his career as a coach, that such a thing had been done.

Then Wann, after telling Mr. Harmon that Millikin would play Illinois a game on Nov. 28 or 29, did not take the trouble to send a message of the refusal of the faculty to allow the post-season game until requested to do so by Mr. Harmon. The faculty action was taken on Wednesday before Thanksgiving and Wann filed the message after the game with Lake Forest Thanksgiving afternoon, in which Millikin met defeat.

Illinois and Millikin have contested each year in athletics since the Decatur school came into existence except during 1918 when a quarantine prevented Illinois from having football games with any school.

This year, Illinois had two basketball games with Millikin, one here and one in Decatur. A football game had also been booked for Nov. 18, 1922. This date will be given to Illinois Wesleyan and Augustana will take the place of Millikin on the Blue and White schedule.

He will appreciate a box of Ogars.

Six Old Players Will Support Captain Bailey in Basketball Team—Play Illinois Here Feb. 18

DECATUR, Ill., Dec. 10.—Eighteen scalps from last year and the basketball championship of the Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic conference, give Coach Norman G. FOOTBALL MEN ARE HIGH IN STUDIES

Lombard Athletes Show Proficiency in School Work—Swanson Chief Point Scorer of Team, Is Second in Scholastic Work Among Men

GALESBURG, Ill., Dec. 10.—Far from football interfering with studies, Lombard college's state championship team made a better showing in the class room than its men who did not do the mole skins, reports President J. M. Tilden.

The Lombard star who scored the most points the past season, Evar Swanson, of DeKalb, stands second highest in scholastic record of any man in the college. He made 223 of Lombard's 441 points and is easily one of the best athletes in the college.

"This year's squad at Lombard numbered 60 men out of the total registration of 102 men," President Dr. Tilden said. "At the mid-semester examinations a week ago but three men on the entire squad were reported as failing in more than one subject and not a single man on the first or second team was below average in any subject."

"Taken man for man, the scholastic grades of the 60 men in football were higher than those of the 42 men who did not participate in athletics."

It is President Tilden's idea that athletics can, if properly handled, be made an attractive part of the college curriculum and that with a sympathetic faculty it is not difficult to maintain an unusually high scholastic record among the athletes.

"The secret of this combined athletic scholastic record," Dr. Tilden said, "lies in a system of efficiency that has been worked out at Lombard where each man's day is carefully divided into a definite schedule of rest, recreation, study and football. The men like to follow this schedule and there is ample time for every thing, including the long, hard work of football practice, every day except Sunday."

A dozen Ide collars would be appreciated by any man. FRANK BYRNS Hat Store.

BRADLEY FOOTBALL SEASON WAS SUCCESS

PEORIA, Ill., (By A. P.)—Bradley Polytechnic Institute's football season is regarded here as the most successful in years.

Out of nine games played only two were lost and one of these went to Lombard. The other was lost to Carthage in bad period of a slump following brilliant victories over Wesleyan and Augustana on the two preceding Saturdays. But the Thanksgiving victory over Eureka completely reconciled the Tech rooters to the Carthage defeat.

The Bradley team rolled up 181 points to their opponents' 79. And out of these 79 points 58 went in one game—the game with Lombard.

Next year's prospects are most attractive. There is a fair degree of certainty that at least eight letter men will be back, including Gross, the Tech's star half back, and Babcock, fullback. In addition to these, first string men, Robertson will have practically all of his second team, a bunch of yearlings who played a five game schedule, winning three and tying one.

The Tech team drew the largest crowds in the history of the school this year.

MICHIGAN WILL HAVE GOOD BASKETBALL TEAM

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (By A. P.)—Prospects for a championship basketball team at the University of Michigan are not the brightest this year, due to loss of at least two of the best players from last year's squad, according to E. J. Mather, coach of the squad.

Captain Joe Karpus, forward, and Jack Williams, a guard, two of the stars of last year's five, graduated last spring. "Duke" Dunne, captain of the football team and center of the basketball aggregation for last two years, does not intend to be a candidate again this year because of the pressure of his University work.

Preliminary practice is under way and 45 men already have responded. From the squad Mather hopes to round out a team that will make a creditable showing in "Big Ten" circles.

Leading the field of candidates this year are Captain Bud Rea, running guard of last year's combination, and whose long shots from the center of the floor upset several conference teams; Miller, one of the best forwards of the Big Ten; Whitlock, substitute forward last year; McGilley, guard, and Reason, center.

From the freshman squad come a number of good men. It is probable that Ely, former star on the Hillsdale, Mich., College five and MacWood, will be strong rivals for Dunne's place. Several men on the football squad are looked upon with favor. Cappon and Kipke are among the number. Paper, who has abandoned football for the year, is another who is to be given a thorough drill, Uteritz and Roby, backfield men, are to receive a trial.

Michigan has a difficult schedule this year, meeting Ohio State, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin in two games each and Chicago and Northwestern once. Development of a strong five here is made more difficult because of two weeks' examination period in the middle of the season places hard games on each side of the tests. In addition to the conference tilts Michigan will meet a number of smaller college fives.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE DEFEATED LINCOLN

Win Hair Raising Game by Score of 32 to 31—Game Tied Half Dozen Times.

Illinois College began its basketball season in David P. since gym Saturday night with a victory over Lincoln college, the final score being 32 to 31.

The game was full of thrills as the count was knotted half dozen times during the play. In the last few seconds Illinois fouled and Merry tossed the basket for Lincoln after the final gun sounded. However, it was short one of tying the count for the visitors.

Lincoln had it on Illinois in condition as they had no Thanksgiving football game and have been practicing since that time and had played two games. They also handled the ball better but the excellent work of the Illinois guards prevented them from hitting the hoop.

One of the bright pieces of work was a basket tossed by Farrell from a difficult angle. Farrell entered the games with seven minutes to play and it was this shot that spelled defeat for Lincoln. Antrobus was the high point scorer for Illinois, while Merry and Madden made most of Lincoln's points.

Considering that it was Illinois first game the men did remarkably well and their work was pleasing to both Coach Harmon and the spectators. Harmon has a lot of new material that should develop and if the new men do what he believes they will Illinois will be heard from during the basketball season.

Howard Millard was expected to referee the game but was sick and "Brick" Young of Illinois Wesleyan, sports writer for the Bloomington Bulletin officiated. The score:

SEEKS REELECTION AS MORGAN COUNTY CLERK

COUNTY CLERK GEO. L. RIGGS.

George L. Riggs, who will in coming months conclude one term of service in the office of county clerk, is a candidate for re-election. When Mr. Riggs entered the office it was with the announced intention of devoting his best energy and thought to his duties and giving the public courteous and competent service.

Those who knew Mr. Riggs before the election were confident that the promises would be kept and those who came in contact with him later found the estimate correct. The three years' record has been written and upon that record Mr. Riggs is now seeking re-election. The affairs of the office have been well cared for and Mr. Riggs and his deputies have sought to serve the public well.

Mr. Riggs has made it very plain that he believes in the axiom that a public office is a public trust. It is his intention to make an active campaign for re-election and if nominated and elected, as he deserves, the people can be assured of again having the important affairs of the county clerk's office given competent attention.

A LETTER FROM THE SOUTH

(By S. W. Nichols)

KUSHLA, Ala., Dec. 6.—To the Editor of the Jacksonville Journal: Here I am in the balmy south, only I have seen more south than balm.

The morning before I arrived it was oppressively warm but that night, Dec. 3, a cold wave struck this locality and has been with us ever since so that a man here from Wisconsin says he feels it fully as much as twenty degrees below in his home state.

This place is fifteen miles from Mobile and a mile from the home of A. H. Sturtevant, whom I am visiting. The gentleman is the last surviving son of President Sturtevant, of Illinois college, and is a worthy son of a noble sire. He has been here twenty-three years and stands high in the community in which he lives. He has a very interesting family. One bright, promising young man was drowned, but four sons and a daughter survive and I can hardly realize the fact that his youngest has been married fifteen years. Two of the sons are in business in New York City and two others are with their father here, carrying on a successful dairy business.

There are also grandchildren, nearly a dozen.

His home was built in slavery days and is a typical southern plantation. Built with no thought of comfort or convenience, for slaves did the work and why should anything be made convenient for them?

The kitchen and dining room are in a separate building from the main dwelling and we go out of doors to our meals. When Mr. Sturtevant bought the place there were eight great wood-burning fireplaces but most of these he has closed up and replaced them with stoves for real heating purposes. The family sitting room yet has the old-time fireplace and I must admit it is pleasant to gather about it in the evening when they lay on a few sticks of pitch pine which will almost kindle with a match and blazes high and merrily. In very cold days, the back freezes while the face burns, but it is a healthy way to live and generally the wood fire makes the room warm enough.

The mercury has gone down to zero occasionally in times past though that is unusual, but this morning there is a bit of ice in wet surfaces. On the other hand, Mr. Sturtevant has a field of oats a few inches high and says it will make good pasture for his cows before time to let it mature. On his premises, he has fig trees, which yield well and two Satsuma orange trees which bear fruit abundantly. Protected by the side of the house they bear largely but the ordinary orange could not grow here.

The land in this immediate vicinity is not especially productive and Mr. Sturtevant buys much feed for his cows. I find human nature is the same here as elsewhere. They somehow manage to keep up a combination so that Mr. Sturtevant can get but two cents a pound for a fat cow but pays about the same that we pay at retail for meat.

The whole place and surroundings bring vividly to mind the days of the Civil war. On the way down from St. Louis I had the good fortune to have for a companion, Dr. I. F. Palmer, of Onarga, Ill. He is a veteran of the Civil war and we agreed, after crossing the river at Cairo, that if we had on coffee sack blouses and grain bag blue pants and were riding in a dirty freight car, we would feel decidedly natural amid the Dixie-like surroundings.

Houses on stilts, few of them painted, many dilapidated, skinny hogs and cattle, swarms of colored people, swamps and pine forests, all looked so natural we could shut our eyes and imagine the rumble of the engine was the roar of distant artillery and we were momentarily looked for the order to "fall in" and march.

Few vestiges of the sad conflict remain, however, and the people here talk little about it. It is also just to say that the cold weather is unusual but some how it is so penetrating. When I retire at night and dress in the morning, I feel the cold fully as much as when the mercury is at zero and below at home. My room opens out on a wide veranda and I sleep with the door open, taking care to cover head and all with clothes which are as ample as those at home and more so and I feel decidedly better for it and can say I am improving.

This locality has in times past supplied large quantities of turpentine and all about the trees show where they have been tapped. It will high destroys a tree to be scarred for turpentine and many stretches of forest about here show the effects of the business.

They are favored with comparatively good roads, as the sandy nature of the soil does not produce the mud we have at home and surely they are entitled to that comfort. Mr. Sturtevant has two autos; a Ford for milk delivery and a Buick for family purposes.

We went to church in Mobile Sunday morning, attending services at the Christian church, where we heard a good sermon by a young minister. At the close we were greeted with genuine southern cordiality which was pleasant.

Mr. Sturtevant's only daughter married a worthy young man of Mobile and died, leaving her with four little children, the youngest but four months. She is a teacher in the public schools and has a very interesting family. One daughter is away at school, two others are with her in Mobile while the youngest child, a bright boy, is with his uncle here.

The colored element is large in this locality, as is to be expected. They have come very good looking churches and some of them have property but all must keep their places. Such an appellation as "Mister" for a colored man is absolutely forbidden among the whites and "niggers equality" is the one great evil in their minds to be avoided.

I was impressed by a number of colored persons on the train down from St. Louis, had to leave the car in which they had been riding and go forward to a "Jim Crow car" when we crossed the river at Cairo. They took it philosophically enough and made no complaint that I could ascertain.

It made me think of a story told by an aged colored man who had occasion to visit Boston and when he returned home they asked him how he enjoyed the trip. He said they were all polite to him, called him "Mister" and so on and treated him very nice; let him ride in the chair car, but after all, when he crossed the line and the brake-man came along and said, "What are you doing here, you grey haired Senegambian? Get back into the Jim Crow car where you belong," he felt quite at home.

All of the residences of the old time have distinguishing traits. The proprietors wanted them to resemble the exclusive manor houses as near as possible. Mr. Sturtevant's house is well back from the road and the driveway leading to it is flanked with noble water oaks, making a stately appearance. A part of the trees were destroyed by a cyclone but enough remain to make a fine appearance.

SHOT IS FIRED AT SCOTT COUNTY FARMER

Harold Fearneyhough Is Object of Attack by Unknown Person—A. H. T. A. Held Business Session—Other Winchester News.

Winchester, Dec. 10.—Harold Fearneyhough, who resides on the John Jones farm, a few miles southeast of Winchester, was the object of a mysterious attack Friday evening. Mr. Fearneyhough was seated in the dining room when a shot rang out and a bullet crashed thru the window and struck the back of the oak chair in which he was seated. Mr. Fearneyhough immediately went to an adjoining room for his shotgun and made a brief search of the yard. Then he telephoned to neighbors and authorities and as soon as possible a search was begun for the marauder.

The bloodhounds were secured from Alsey and followed a trail which took them thru Exeter. Where the trail was lost. The bullet found near the chair showed that a 22 calibre rifle had been used.

Mr. Fearneyhough is utterly unable to explain the attack. He knows of no enemies. Some neighbors remembered that they had seen a stranger in the afternoon in the vicinity carrying a rifle and apparently hunting. However, they thought nothing of the matter at the time and had no accurate description of the man.

CHRISTMAS SCENERY

WILL GREET SANTA

"Santa Claus" will find gay Christmas scenery when he drives through Jacksonville's business section, for the Chamber of Commerce decorating committee start work on Monday.

Red, white and green are the colors. Each lamp-post will hide behind a white lattice of poinsettias and evergreen, twined in red and white Japanese rope. Red shades on the two lower lights, festoons of southern smilax, strung above the lattices and Christmas trees for every store front, will finish the picture.

Streamers of the bright, red paper rope, dropping from the smilax lines to the trees will add the last festive touch.

A fellow who can't get the Christmas spirit in these cheerful surroundings, deserves to find peach switches in his Christmas stocking.

PUSSYFOOT SAYS INDIA IS RIPE

CALCUTTA, Nov. 9.—William E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson, American prohibition worker, told the members of the Rotary club here that his impression after an extensive tour of the country, is that India is more ripe for prohibition than America was five years ago.

Mr. Johnson was the principal guest of the club at its tiffin where he was subjected to a good-natured bombardment of questions.

Describing his reception in India which has been an enthusiastic one, Mr. Johnson said he had been welcomed because he represented a crusade that appealed to the people of India.

"In the districts I have visited in the past few weeks," he said, "I have been entertained by every class, from the Viceroy and the native princes downwards, and only on a single occasion—at Patna several days ago—did I hear an Indian stand up to oppose prohibition.

"It was at Patna that I witnessed a remarkable demonstration in support of 'dry' India, a great crowd of nearly 5,000 at the request of the chairman voting on the question by a show of hands. So far as I could see, every hand in the audience—and in some instances both—was raised immediately in favor of prohibition, and not a solitary hand against.

"I might mention also, the wonderful gathering we had in a theater at Baroda—with an audience of more than three thousand—at which a speaker was loudly hissed for a reference to non-cooperation, but cheered with wild enthusiasm a few minutes later when he declared that the taxpayers of India would be only too willing to meet the additional taxation that may be necessary after prohibition.

"I would like to say," he concluded, "that I have not met a single British official who has not gone out of his way to be kind to me."

ADVENT OF LANDED GENTRY IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The advent of a new "landed gentry" in England since the war, is made plain by "Burke's," an annual work of reference on that subject which has reappeared after a break of seven years.

Over 100 names of old landowners have disappeared since 1914, and the place have been taken by double that number of newcomers.

In the preface, the editor remarks: "Much as the passing of the old landed gentry, and the diminution of their holdings, is regretted, the rise of a new landed gentry, possessed of means enabling them to do justice of their previous owners."

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES HELP POLICY HOLDERS

Loan Many Millions During Financial Depression.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Life insurance companies have rendered notable service during the period of financial depression by loaning policy holders approximately $200,000,000 since the beginning of 1919. Henry S. Nollen of Des Moines, president of the Equitable Life Insurance company of Iowa, today told the fifteenth annual convention of the association of life insurance presidents. These loans, he said, made at less than prevailing interest rates, many times when it was almost impossible to borrow money thru banks, aided materially in relieving conditions in communities in every part of the United States.

Mr. Nollen disclosed that today's policy holders had been the greatest borrowers, loans to individuals in that state being 32.52 per cent of the reserve available on September 30, 1921.

Other states showing a high ratio between loans and reserves were: Massachusetts, New York, Illinois, Georgia, Alabama, North Dakota and Washington. States maintaining the lowest average ratio were: New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, Iowa and Nevada. Outstanding loans against the policy reserve of nearly $6,000,000,000 is not quite $1,000,000,000 or 14.68 per cent.

AFRICA ORIGINAL HOME OF THE HUMAN RACE

LONDON, Dec. 10.—Scientists say the Darwinian theory, that Africa may have been the original home of the human race, received partial corroboration from the discovery just made in northern Rhodesia of a fossilized skull, which gives a new orientation to the early history of primitive man.

The skull, which is complete, save for the lower jaw, resembles that of the ape man (pithecanthropus erectus) discovered in Java in 1892, which has been regarded as the most primitive human skull known until now. The Java skull, however, lacked a face. In this respect, the Rhodesian fossil reveals a type curiously similar to what is known as the Gibraltar skull.

Moreover, a collar bone, a leg bone and part of a hip bone, believed to belong to the skull, have also been unearthed, and these may enable anatomists to reconstruct the main parts of the entire Rhodesian skeleton.

The scene of the discovery was the "bone cave" of the Broken Hill mine, already famous for the beauty of its stalactites and stalagmites and for the remarkable fact that the lime of which they were originally composed, have been largely replaced by phosphates of zinc and lead.

It was the commercial value of these formations that led to the transformation of this cave into one of the strangest mines ever worked.

The floor consisted of a mass of fossilized remains of elephants, lions, leopards, rhinoceros, hippopotami, antelopes, birds, bats and small mammals. Hundreds of tons of these animal remains had been removed but no trace of man was discovered until a depth of 60 feet below water level was reached when the bones described were found surrounded by soft friable lead conglomerate.

ECONOMIC CRISIS AFFECTS BUSINESS

HAVANA, Cuba, Dec. 10.—Cuban business interests vitally affected by the prevailing financial and economic crises are becoming impatient because of the delay in negotiations for a $50,000,000 exterior loan to help normalize the country. Their vehement inquiries have just elicited information from official quarters to the effect that congressional approval of loan legislation cannot be expected until the legislative committees in charge of framing tariff and tax reforms have finished their arduous task.

Conferences between administration officials and congressional leaders, however, are being held daily and it is hoped that a program that congress will approve will be settled upon as soon as the administration has finished reducing the budget and the tariff and tax committees have made their recommendations. Assurances that the government's income would be so adjusted as to meet the additional interest and sinking fund loan charges were the prime requisites demanded by the American bankers.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS HAVE ENGRAVED CARDS

Coblenz—(By A. P.)—Engraved calling cards are a late fad among soldiers of the American forces in Germany. Nearly every soldier has engraved cards with his name and outfit and some even have other cards with their home address in the United States, particularly those who are planning to return to America within the next few months.

A hundred cards and plate, at the present rate of exchange of the dollar for the mark, costs the soldier about 50 or 60 cents in Coblenz stationery shops.

OREGON IS FRIEND OF THEATER

Los Angeles, Cal.—(By A. P.)—Gen. Alvaro Obregon, president of Mexico, is revealed as a friend of the theater in general and of stranded theatrical people in particular in tales told here by a troupe of Los Angeles dancers.

The dancers, all Los Angeles girls who were chartered by a Los Angeles woman, went to Mexico City to entertain in connection with the Mexican Centennial celebration. Their contract, they said, called for round-trip tickets.

But, they said, when their engagement was concluded, they were refused transport on home. They appealed in turn to representatives of the American state department, and to the secretaries of the Mexican treasury and interior, they declared, but met only failure.

Then one of the girls managed to obtain an interview with President Obregon, who paid the dancers' hotel bill and provided them with tickets back to Los Angeles.

In addition to this, the girls related, President Obregon provided transportation back to New York for forty-two American chorus girls when the show they were with became stranded.

Charles Johnson of Pisgah was shaking hands with friends on the square Saturday.

GERMANS GETTING BACK CHINA TRADE

London—(By A. P.)—The Germans are gradually returning to China and picking up the threads of their former business; not trading for the present under their own names but in partnership with Chinese, says a report on the commercial situation of China, by H. H. Fox, Commercial Counselor of the British Legation in Peking.

German dyes and paints, needles, metals, drugs and sundries are beginning to appear on the Shanghai market, the report goes on, and it is stated that several important orders for machinery and electric plant have recently been booked by German firms.

There is no doubt, the report says, that the Germans, assisted by the comparative cheapness of their products, will gradually recover the share they held in China's foreign trade before the war, but the process will be slow, as they have lost valuable connections; the business organizations they had so laboriously built up have been shattered, and they have suffered a serious loss of prestige in the eyes of the Chinese.

Oxford Circus Great Shopping Near Cave-in on Account of Work at Tube Station

LONDON—(By the A. P.)—This city has just narrowly escaped a great peril, the possible caving in of Oxford Circus, the shopping center of the West End, says a story circulated by a news agency. The danger of the disaster was well known only to contractors and workers underground. They were altering an exit from the Oxford Circus tube station so as to make an entrance into a business building when the contractors discovered a bed of a little unknown agency of the Thames river, which was covered over when Regent street was made.

They also found, to their amazement and consternation, that they were meeting the direct "lines of vibration," of the two underground tubes, the Central London and the Bakerloo.

The news agency says that they realized that if the excavations continued the whole of Oxford Circus might be literally precipitated underground. There were perilous days, and laborious nights occupied in underpinning the buildings above ground and overcoming the side pressure, which was being felt.

In place of the shifting sands of the old river bed there was constructed a retaining wall of cement which, it is declared, has made the great shopping center more secure than at any time since the river flowed down the slopes of the present Regent street.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASSOCIATE ADVISER

(By H. J. Rucker)

The work of the Livestock Department of the Morgan County Farm Bureau began February 15th, 1921. No special machinery was perfected in which to carry on this work separate from the work of the crop department and the same chairman of each community was asked to participate in this work as in all other work of the Farm Bureau.

The work of this department can be divided into two heads. First, indirect service rendered and second, direct service.

The indirect service has been along livestock marketing and the first important step is the organizing of four livestock shipping associations, which are, Alexander-Orleans, Arnold Shipping association, Chapin Shipping association, Litterberry Shipping association and Joy Prairie Shipping association. These four shipping associations are operating at six different shipping points. Besides these four the Concord and Rees Shipping associations were organized prior to February 15th. During the first seven months of existence of these shipping associations, over ninety carloads of livestock have been shipped out. The value of which is hard to determine as to the benefit received by the shippers. The real benefits of the shipping associations are first, that they secure for the farmer a price for his livestock which is the true market price for that grade of livestock and so he is not paid, more or less than his animals are worth, in comparison with better or less qualified animals. 2nd. It places the stock with better or less qualified ans on the market at a minimum cost. 3rd. It encourages the breeding and feeding of better livestock.

The Farm Bureau co-operated with the Breeders association in holding a combination sale in February, and in promoting breed associations. We co-operated with the Duroc Breeders' association in its meetings and in their working policies. Assisted in the organizing of the Poland China Breeders association and co-operated with them in their work. Co-operated with the breeders interested in the Spotted Poland China in the organization of their association. Co-operated with the Berkshire breeders in the perfecting of their association. These four Breeders associations speak well for Morgan county. Many outstanding individuals in these breeds can be found in our county, and the Farm Bureau is able to put you in touch with the best blood in the county.

Altho Morgan county is not known as a dairymen county, the work in this line is being developed. During the early spring thru the co-operation of the state department, dairy meetings were held at various points in the county encouraging the improvement and importation of dairy cattle. In this same line the Farm Bureau is co-operating with various associations of the county planning to hold four-one day meetings at eight different points in the county encouraging better feeding and breeding of dairy cows. The Farm Bureau also co-operated with the dairymen of Jacksonville and the city council in drawing up an ordinance effecting the production and sale of milk and cream in the city of Jacksonville. This has opened up a way to develop a county free from tuberculosis in cattle and this work will be pushed right along until Morgan county can say that all of her cattle is free this disease.

Not the least of the indirect services rendered was the promotion of the Morgan county fair. The associate adviser spent a large majority of his time in promoting this fair and the Farm Bureau willingly offered his services free of charge to the association believing that the interest shown in this fair would do as much in developing better livestock in the county as anything else.

Along with the indirect service rendered in development of better livestock, the Farm Bureau co-operated with the state association in securing two livestock surveys.

Direct service.

Direct service is rendered in farm visits, consultation, meetings and demonstrations. The associate adviser made 99 farm visits all of which were in answer to some special call regarding livestock development. The work of the department has been largely thru meetings. Ninety meetings having been held with an attendance of 1852. Of these 90 meetings, 18 of them were demonstration meetings of poultry shows that Morgan county flocks are as good, if not better, than the average county. It is the opinion of the associate adviser that 10 per cent of our poultry kept on the farm are non-producers but without proper feeding as high as 40 per cent will not produce sufficiently to pay expenses. The encouragement of culling and the proper feeding is necessary for the development of this department.

Altho the year of 1920 was a poor year for pooling wool, six of our farmers again pooled their wool this year and we are hopeful that the price secured for their wool will be an encouragement for future pooling. The wool blankets, robes and hats as ordered in 1920 have all been received and are ready for distribution, if not already received.

Besides the work within the county, the livestock department was represented at the Chicago meeting of the Committee of Fifteen when they made their report and recommendations for developing a system of orderly marketing of livestock. There was also fifteen other days spent outside of county in development of this work.

For a summary of the work accomplished by this department: We have held 90 meetings with an attendance of 1852 averaging 20. 18 demonstration with an attendance of 210 averaging 12. One auto tour, attendance of 12. 782 office consultations, which does not include numerous telephone calls, 1442 letters, 99 farm visits, 38 circular letters with 4081 copies sent out, material for the monthly bulletin and 60 newspaper articles written.

Recommendations.

The recommendations offered for the work of the livestock departments are as follows: 1st. Promotion of the marketing of livestock of the county thru the development of other shipping associations and the improvement of the shipping associations already organized. 2nd. Securing of better sires and dams for breeding purposes. 3rd. Controlling of animal disease, rendering a service not only in lessening losses in livestock but towards lessening of human diseases. 4th. Better and more economical breeding of livestock. 5th. Encouraging the adoption of crop system for better livestock production. 6th. The co-operation with the Morgan County Breeders Fair. 7th. Development of ways and means of publicity to membership.

Respectfully submitted,

Herbert J. Rucker.

NOTRE DAME WILL LOSE THIRTEEN MEN

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 10.—The fact that thirteen University of Notre Dame football stars will say farewell to good old college days next June might be taken as an unlucky omen by some coaches but Knute Rockne, who turns out the football teams at this school, is not abashed. To Rockne it simply means developing thirteen more who are just as good. He may not be able to do it, but intends to try, he says.

The baker's dozen to leave Notre Dame are Capt. Eddie Anderson, Buck Shaw, Hank Anderson, Roger Kiley, Johnny Mohardt, Chet Wynne, Jim Dooley, Glenn Carberry, Dan Coughlin, Jim Phelan, Earl Walsh, Harry Mehre and Chet Grant.

Although Rockne has depended upon these men to a large extent he had not been unkind of the future and followers of athletics at Notre Dame predict the next season will see the university represented by a smooth-working aggregation that will uphold the record set by the stars who are soon to pass out of sight.

WHITE HALL CITY COUNCIL IN SESSION

Interesting Discussion Marked Regular Meeting of City Fathers—City Laborers to be Relieved of Discount Burden.

White Hall, Dec. 8.—A romantic spirit enveloped the session of the city council Tuesday, the regular December session, in connection with the proposal for the installation of an electric fire siren on the part of the C. I. P. S. Co. The proposal brought forth reminiscences of an experience with a siren whistle some 25 years ago or more. It was promoted by public subscription and installed on the then electric plant. Its search came with unexpected exuberance over this section of the country, being a size and capacity out of all proportion to the demands of the occasion.

It drove all the dogs out of town, frightened cattle and horses for many miles around to such an extent that the city faced damage suits growing out of torn down fences, and then it dawned on the promoters that a siren whistle is not just the thing needful, as it would be better to burn the town than to scare all the people and live stock to death, dogs being the worst sufferers. The whistle was taken down and finally found place in a junk yard, from where it was taken out and now is said to grace one of the most pretentious steamers in the Illinois river trade. Mayor Roodhouse finally concluded that the city is not now in proper financial condition to adopt an electric fire siren in view of what was related by the attorney and others who had a hand in the original siren experiment.

Alderman Whiteside came to the relief of city laborers by calling attention to the fact that they are required to discount their warrants two per cent in order to procure cash on the anticipation warrants now being issued. He believed this to be fundamentally wrong, and recommended that action be taken to provide for the payment of those warrants in full in cash without discount, and this recommendation received unanimously favorable action making provision to take care of all salary accounts without thus penalizing the workers.

The treasurer reported a total balance of $6,237.54 on hand, mostly in the water fund, and claims to the amount of $1,150 were allowed, including $425 for electric service, $397 for salaries and $346 for miscellaneous purposes, leaving a net balance of $5,087.54.

In the case of Walter Benear, injured while casually in the employ of the water department, the treasurer reported $84.00 paid by the casualty company carrying the city risk. The sum of $15 was voted for expense of a trip to Jacksonville to confer with a specialist. Benear lost the hearing of one ear two months ago when the water pressure came upon him while he was working in a water main.

The mayor named himself and two members to serve as members of the local board of health, and he was granted permission to defer until the January meeting the appointment of the physician member of the health body.

The sale of chewing gum and candy in pool rooms was authorized. The council ignored a request to authorize the sale of soft drinks in such places.

The fire alarm proposition was referred to the fire and police committee. The proposition was then presented by a representative of the C. I. P. S. Co., showing it to cost $478.50, with some additional cost for the installation of switchboard and furnishing electric current.

READJUSTMENT CONTINUES IN MEXICO

The readjustment process continues to be distressing in Mexico states the monthly cable from Trade Commissioner R. M. Connell, Mexico City, under date of November 25. However, it has brought an air of encouragement particularly since it is known that several concerns have safely passed thru the crisis. Prices on general food supplies are lower, while labor is plentiful and cheaper. There is overstocking in several markets with decreases in imports.

Financial Conditions Unsatisfactory.

Money is tighter, and higher interest rates are expected. The disappearance of gold from circulation is causing great concern, and it is thought that silver of intrinsic value will replace the gold. Collections are very difficult, and minor failures are occurring especially in the Syrian colony. Bank deposits are decreasing, particularly deposits of foreign currencies and little immediate investment taking place. The government's financial condition has not improved, but the projected issue of bank notes is being held in abeyance. The railways are reported to be operating at a loss.

Business Is Dull in All Lines.

Imports are decreasing and prices are slowly declining; importers are placing few orders and those carefully. There is a fair demand for some necessities, but the movement of import stocks of luxuries continues to be sluggish. It is expected that duties on luxuries will be increased by 50 per cent, especially on leather, silks, textiles, jewelry and tobacco. Owners of northern ranches have hesitated to restock them with cattle.

Exports stocks of oil are decreasing. Shipments of oil for the first nine months of the present year approximated 121,000,000 barrels, and nearly 15,000,000 barrels were exported during October.

Domestic textile manufacturers claim the market is greatly overstocked with imported textiles, and the Puebla mills have threatened to reduce operations. Dry goods stocks are heavy in proportion to the demand and the movement is light. It is reported that an oversupply of groceries exists, and prices of beans, corn, wheat, and other food necessities are ruling lower. The efforts of local manufacturers to reduce stocks has forced down prices on some manufactured products. Crop reports show no improvement; on the contrary, conditions in the Laguna cotton district are worse, while there are also indications of a light coffee crop.

The railroad movement is falling off so that preparations are being made to resume the distribution of importations thru Tampico. Congestion is practically cleared up. The return of American freight cars is generally being satisfactorily accomplished.

Altho political conditions continue quiet, industrial unrest is general. The latter is attributed to the failure of the government to make favorable settlement of the agrarian question affecting the farmers and to article 123 of the constitution of 1917, providing for the regulation of the hours, wages, and conditions of labor, affecting industrialists. The principal cause, however, is believed to be the distressing readjustment process. There is apparently a growing wave of sentiment against the strict application of the agrarian law as evidenced by the government's approval of amendments. There also is agitation for the federalization of labor legislation to prevent the repetition of such legislation by other states of Vera Cruz, Puebla, and Michoacan. Labor is plentiful and cheaper. An increase in unemployment is anticipated particularly in the textile manufacturing districts. There is no activity in the building trades. The legislation of July 9, having for its purpose the stimulating of building in the Federal District has been ineffectual.

HORSE WILL EVER BE SOURCE OF POWER

Tractor Will Never Be Able to Do Certain Kinds of Farm Work
—Statement Made by Bureau
Chief

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The horse will ever be the great source of power on the American farm, according to Dr. H. C. Taylor, of Washington, D. C., chief of the federal bureau of marketing.
These are the reasons he gave here recently:
"It is very clear that while at certain times of the year, in the spring, getting the seed in, there is work that can be done with facility with a tractor, but there is so much other work during the remainder of the year that requires a horse, that the horse is needed.

"The adaptability of the horse to all lines of work puts him in a position to be needed indefinitely when figured on the basis of the cost of performing the service. Its adaptability, the great variety of services that can be rendered by the horse, makes the horse permanent as a source of power on the farm.
"There is one other reason that we appreciate in these days why the farmer wants to stick to the horse. Even though he may,
in some instances on some farms,

and that he can use a tractor for taking the peak off of the heavy load at certain times of the year, the fact that he can produce his power and produce not only the horse, but the feed for the horse, is one of the strongest arguments for the horse.
"The horse is independent of the middleman from whom the farmer must buy his power, buy first the engine, then oil, gasoline or kerosene, and the repairs, constantly at the mercy of some one else. When the farmer produces his own power, and the feed for the machine that develops the power, he is independent of high-priced city labor, and in a position to move forward with his work on the basis of the power which has been produced on his own farm."

USE OF SCRIPT AIDS
TEXAS BANKS

Ranger, Tex., Dec. 4.—Confidence and use of script is said by residents of Ranger to have prevented serious financial difficulties a few months ago, when one of the larger banks closed its doors. The issuance and use of the script as in the case here is said to be unusual.

When the bank announced it was unable to continue payments the business men met with bank officials, the state banking officers and others interested. An agreement to appoint a trustee of the accounts in the bank was made. Special script was printed so as to be hard to counterfeit, and depositors in need of ready cash, were permitted to assign their accounts and to issue the script up to 75 per cent of their deposits. Both depositor and trustee signed the script. It was accepted by the business men as cash.

The plan worked smoothly. A total of about $40,000 in the script was issued and practically all of it has been redeemed. That outstanding now has not been presented, and it is thought some probably never will be, as a small amount has been lost and some is being kept as souvenirs. The money to redeem the script is to be kept ready for four years. Confidence that all depositors would eventually be paid in full, with the protection of the state banking laws made it possible to put across the script plan. Subsequent developments are said by business men here to have proved the advisability of the action taken.

DOUBLE TRACKING

LONG I. C. BRIDGE

Bridge at Cairo Being Improved
—Will Cost Over $8,000,000.

CHICAGO—(By A. P.)—Work has started on plans for double tracking the long Illinois Central bridge across the Ohio river at Cairo. It is stated at offices of the Illinois Central here. It is estimated that the bridge will cost something under $8,500,000.

It will take six months or a year to complete the plans, and they must be then approved by the Secretary of War. This puts actual starting of construction some time ahead in the future.

The total length of the opening then was 20,460 feet or 3 7-8 miles. Since then this long stretch has been greatly reduced by earth fills on both approaches.
The bridge's present length is 7-957 feet, 4,646 being over the channel proper.

The total height of the structure, from the bottom of the deepest foundation to the top of the highest part of the iron work, is 249 feet, writes C. I. Anderson, assistant engineer of the system,
in the Illinois Central Magazine.
This is within 11 feet of the height of the People's Gas Building, one of Chicago's chief skyscraper.

During its first ten years traffic increased very greatly and by 1902 consideration was being given to double tracking. A permit was denied in 1914, and the next year the bridge was strenghtened to allow the passage of heavier trains. Permission to double track was finally given on Nov. 10.

FARM BUREAUS HAVE SECURED LAND LOANS

CHICAGO—(By A. P.)—Thirty-one Illinois county farm bureaus have been instrumental in the organization of farm loan associations which have been the means of obtaining thousands of dollars in land loans for Illinois farmers during the past year, according to a report from the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The Federal Land Bank of St.
Louis with which all the loans have been transacted, reports satisfactory business relations with the county farm bureaus, the statement adds.

In most of the counties in which the farm bureau has organized farm loan association, the county farm adviser is acting as secretary-treasurer of the organization. In the other counties the farm bureau was instrumental in organizing the association but had some responsible person of the community elected as secretary-treasurer.

There must be at least ten responsible members of the community in each of the associations.
A committee representing the association appraises the land of a farmer asking a loan its appraisal subject to the approval of a final appraisal by the bank. The loans are made on not to exceed half the value of the land on one-fifth of the value of improvements as security. They extend for thirty-three years, being authorized annually by the payment of interest.

As yet $10,000 is the maximum loan, altho the national farm bureau organization, the American Farm Bureau Federation, is striving to have this raised to $25,000.

Illinois counties in which the county farm bureaus have organized farm loan associations are:
Jo Daviess, Stephenson, Boone,
McHenry, Lake, Ogle, DeKalb,
Kane DuPage Will, Grundy, La-Salle, Henry Rock Island, Peoria,
Marshall, Kankakee, McLean,
Greene, Calhoun, Christian, Shelby Edgar Madison St. Clair, Monroe, Union, DeWitt, Mason, Warren, Marion.

BISHOP OF ALASKA

MANY YEARS IN NORTH

CHICAGO—(By A. P.)—Bishop Rowe, Episcopal bishop of Alaska will preach at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Evanston on Sunday, it is announced.

The Alaskan's life has been one of romance. Born in Canada in 1856, as soon as he was ordained he went as a missionary to an Indian tribe on Lake Huron. Then he took a new field at Sault Ste.
Marie, where his church had but six members. Leaving ten years, later, his charge numbered 250.

In 1895, when the Episcopal church wanted a bishop for Alaska, and chose Peter Rowe, he was then perhaps the only man of the horde that landed at Juneau that year in the gold rush who was a real Alaskan, for he intended to make it his home.

For twenty-five years since he has been "mushing" over the trail with his dogs, visiting the trader's camp, Eskimo village, and Indian village with the gospel.

Up at Point Hope in the Arctic Ocean, shut off from the rest of the world, a whole village of Eskimos sing and say the service of the Episcopal church in their own language, as the result of his efforts.

OPEN SEASON ON BANK ROBBERS HERE

Head of Protective Department of Illinois Bankers' Association
Laying Plans to Forestall Robberies

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The open season for bank robbers has arrived, according to Edward S.
Arentz, head of the protective department of the Illinois Bankers' association, who is laying plans forestall what he describes as
"the epidemic of bank robberies which is upon us." Mr. Arentz has outlined a plan of bank protection which he expects, if carried out, will minimize bank losses from hold-ups and burglaries.

Working through the county federations of the State Bankers' organization, bankers throughout Illinois are being urged to take up the Arentz plan, which provides for appointment of a deputy sheriff for every bank in every town and organization of a vigilance committee in every large town. The captains of the committees also would be deputy sheriffs.

Mr. Arentz suggests that shotguns be placed in all places of business surrounding the bank, to be used in emergency.

A regular crew of four men, he says, should be stationed at the sheriff's office, with a high-power automobile, ready to jump into the machine and speed to the scene of any bank hold-up or any other major crime. By proper arrangement with the phone company, which would be furnished with a list of deputies, every deputy sheriff in the county would be notified and a guard thrown out to intercept travelers on all roads leading from the crime.

If the bandits have passed through the circle of deputies, other towns would be notified and the vigilance committees of those towns would then take up the chase.

Two counties, La Salle and Du Page, have already approved the plan and appointed committees to work out its installation. Other counties are expected to take up the plan as soon as possible to work out details, according to Mr. Arentz.

UNUSUAL INTEREST IN POULTRY SHOW

Many Inquiries Coming From
Out-of-Town Breeders—Heavy Laying Class Is Bringing Many Entries

Inquiries from out-of-town breeders indicate unusual interest in the coming poultry show. One breeder in a near-by town writes for more entry blanks, stating that he will enter thirty-five head.

Promises have been made as far south as Mount Carmel.

Springfield promises a good many entries and a fine number of visitors.

The low entry fees and the liberal regular and special cash prizes are commented on, as being unusual.

Over 100 Rhode Island Red entries alone, are anticipated, if local breeders will do their part.

Many people are Hogan testing their best hens and pullets, trying to select their best for the heavy laying class. This is to be the most important feature of the show and every man or woman in Morgan county that owns or feeds one dozen hens will get free information next week that will enable them to cull out the loafers and keep the profitable ones. Fine feathers don't count in this case. The entry fee is low and the premiums are good, and several hundred birds should be entered in this contest.

Handsome, pure, silk ribbons will be awarded the first, second, third and fourth prize winners in all classes and varieties.

In addition, each winner will get a nice little souvenir that is strictly new and so up to date that even the poultry judges are not "wise" to it.

This is Morgan county's show, financed by the state and local business men and breeders. The purpose is to educate toward more profitable poultry and also acts as a clearing house for those who desire to sell or buy. Many thousands of dollars are sent from Morgan county each year to buy stock sight unseen. There is much mighty fine poultry in Morgan county and if the owners will exhibit and attend, they can get better acquainted with their neighbors and their stock.

The burden of putting the affair on fall's on the shoulders of a few individuals who have few, if any, birds to sell, and they serve with practically no reward for services rendered.

Monday, Dec. 12, is "clean up and decorate day" and it is hoped that a number of good Samaritans will appear at the Cherry Annex.

Merchants having hanging and flags they will loan for decorating, will confer a favor by calling Bell phone 561 or Illinois 800 as soon as possible.

Remember this is your show, not the other fellow's.

CITY BUREAU MAN COMPLETES REPORT

Gives Further Facts About Work of Local Chamber of Commerce —Report Speaks Well For Community Spirit.

The work, the accomplishments and the finance of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce has been subjected to a careful examination for the past two days by an expert from the American City Bureau sent here to make the six months audit required by the Bureau from all their organizations throughout the country.

J. H. McLaughlin made a thorough examination, going over each committee meeting report, each directors' meeting minutes, all ledgers and book accounts, all publicity written, in fact each detail of the organization.

In his report to the bureau and the board of directors he stated that he has found few organizations in his experience where the finances were so carefully handled and as much money in the bank at the end of the first six months of the annual dues had been collected in the first six months and a budget comparison indicated that $350 had been saved over the budget allowance. The major program was well

UNEMPLOYMENT MAKES BIG DEMAND

Public Library in Chicago Has Increased Call for Books—
Due to Economic Conditions

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Demand for library books has taken a tremendous jump in Chicago this fall, according to Carl B. Roden, librarian of the Chicago public library.

"The increase has been tremendous and has almost swamped us," Mr. Roden said. "Unemployment has contributed, but I am convinced this does not account for all of the increase."

"The demand is in great part for good stuff. Not all the people out of work are doing the reading—the character of books demanded certainly does not point to the unemployed type."

"My idea is that interest in reading is growing very rapidly in Chicago."

"We had to buy 300 copies of one recent book which was not of the so-called 'popular' kind to make any impression on the demand."

"A week ago Saturday, for instance, we gave out 55,000 books at the downtown library. In October with sixteen branches working on a short schedule and with a short staff, we ran 50,000 higher than 1920 with a full staff and all branches open full time."

"Our total circulation for the year will fall below that of 1920, which totaled 8,000,000, due to restrictions forced by economies, but I think the big increase in the last few months will show us circulation of not much below 7,000,000 for the year."

Will Form More
LOCAL ASSOCIATIONS
More local shipping associations before a central organization is made, was the vote of more than fifty livestock breeders and shippers of Morgan county at their meeting in the Farm Bureau office.

Probably five more local associations will be formed in addition to the seven now existing, before the proposition of a county organization is promoted.

The Poland-China Breeders' association met Saturday afternoon at the Farm Bureau to make plans for a sale to be held Feb. 18. A conference of the Morgan County Breeders' association followed.

Miss Golden Blakeman of Murphysville was a visitor to the city yesterday.

With Morgan County Posts INSPIRATION

I looked the flower garden over,
And stumbled on her mid the corn;
I conjured her in dusk and clover—
She came arousing me at morn.

I saw her not in modern books,
But plain as Truth in daily print;
I scoured in vain the fields and brooks,
And found her buried in a flint.

I lost my way in epics bold—
She came—with Slang—to my relief;
To laughter she was coy, or cold;
Sometimes she turned away from grief.

I probed the starry syndicate—
She hailed me from a noon-day cloud;
I roamed the boulevards of state—
We met in a grimy factory crowd.

I had Religion scan the spheres,
And Science delve around below;
Religion was too blind with years,
And Science was too young to know.

No charm was there in singing water,
Beat of drums, or bells' wild peals;
And oh, how seldom have I caught her Dodging Art's Symphonic heels!

From turbid pools she oft looked up,
Thru dingy casements peered at me;
And once she perched upon the cup
That held a toast to Amity.

DR. E. A. STEINER IS WOMAN'S CLUB SPEAKER

Prominent Man Made Address
Before Women's Club at L. W.
C., Saturday Afternoon—Discussed Conditions in Europe.

An audience which taxed the capacity of Music Hall heard the lecture given by Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Grinnell, Iowa at the December meeting of the Jacksonville Woman's club Saturday afternoon. Dr. Steiner, who has but recently returned after a nine months' stay in Europe, had as his subject "The Mind of Europe."

It was the statement of Dr. Steiner that the all-consuming desire of the nations of Europe is not peace but power, and that the old hates and jealousies still exist there.

The club's president, Mrs. A. B. Williamson, presided and Miss Mary Anderson, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker of the afternoon.

A pleasing feature of the program was a group of songs given by Miss Nelle Self, with Miss Alice Barwise of the Woman's college as accompanist. Miss Self sang "The Cycle of Life" by Ronald and "The Music Box" from the musical review "What's In a Name," and then responded to an encore.

The program of the afternoon was in charge of Miss Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Vorse Bassett, Mrs. Robert Shoemaker, Mrs. L. S. Doane, Misses Janett Powell and Isabel Smith.

Dr. Steiner in beginning his address said that his sole endeavor since returning from Europe has been to keep from adding to the stock of lies which had been told regarding conditions prevailing there. He said that it was a dreary picture which he would present. "Perhaps my spectacles were misty," said Dr. Steiner.

"Perhaps I saw but grey where I might have seen blue skies. But you see I was following a broad line and that is really a poor way of seeing Europe. After 100,000 half-starved, war ridden tubercular children had trampled over my heart I was capable of nothing but wholesale pity. When I saw these little children for the first time I felt like cursing the war makers for bringing such terrible things to pass."

"Everywhere you see these living skeletons—men and women who say, 'What's the use of living?' The war has standardized Europe pretty much. The great team roller has pressed it flat, he mills of the gods have ground both fast and fine. Everywhere the high cost of living is the main topic of conversation, and to the question 'What shall we do?' is added the query, 'Where shall we live?'

The housing problem is one which is pressing everywhere. Men are not thinking how to conform their lives to high ideal; and to escape the punishment hereafter, but how to escape the tax and customs collectors."

War Brought Changes.
"The war did stimulate certain virtues in the hearts of men, but patriotism became a cloak for profiteering. The war created its own mental, social and spiritual abnormality and there are now new chasms between nations and peoples. Christianity, with its doctrine of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, is facing a crisis. The ancient rift between capital and labor is growing wider. The new-made rich are engrossed in their pleasures, careless of the suffering of the poor."

"I could not understand how the people of wealth could enjoy their feasting and dancing with such terrible poverty just around

TROOP FIVE ENJOYED CAMP SUPPER FRIDAY
At a regular meeting of Troop 5, of the Boy Scouts, of this city, Friday evening, a regular camp supper was enjoyed and a fine time was had by all.
The regular business meeting was held before the supper and good talks were given by the visitors, Mr. Metcalf and Mr. Saye, of the troop committee, and Mr. Clamper, a friend of Scoutmaster Robertson.

The general trend of their talks was toward the advantages of the boyhood days of the present-day youth, over those of the boys of yesterday. They pointed out the responsibilities that await the boy of today as the business-man of tomorrow, and emphasized the great value of being a good sportsman while a boy and its bearing on the later life of the man.

The meeting was then adjourned, and supper was served. "Flap-jacks" and camp "stew" were served by two of the boy scouts who had worked all afternoon to prepare it.

Let Your Own Judgment Decide
"WHEN practically without exception the artists who draw the largest audiences in opera or in concert, whose names in every land are synonymous with artistic achievement, make records for one particular talking machine there is only one reasonable conclusion, namely that that instrument is, in the opinion of the artists, the one best medium through which their art may be perpetuated. When, in addition, the public, final judge of all human enterprise, confirms the artists' choice there is little room for argument."

THE SINEWS OF THE T. B. WAR

(An editorial from "The American Legion Weekly.")
Ten thousand American veterans of the World war are being treated for tuberculosis in government sanatoria and hospitals. Many times that number of veterans are known to be suffering from tuberculosis while they remain at home at their daily tasks earning their livelihoods. In the next few years especially and for many years to come tuberculosis will kill annually ergments of men who came safely thru the hazards of wartime on land and sea.

For these reasons the American Legion has a deep and sympathetic interest in the country-wide campaign which the National Tuberculosis association has been conducting for many years in the hope of stamping out the disease thru education concerning its causes, its prevention and cure. The third national convention at Kansas City adopted a special resolution endorsing the work of the National Tuberculosis association, and legionnaires in this holiday season have the opportunity of demonstrating that the Legion's appreciation is deeper than words. We all can buy and use the Christmas seals which are sold annually to raise the funds necessary to carry on the campaign against tuberculosis.

Presidential Campaign From Washington To Roosevelt

(By George Murray McConnell.)
The following review of this notable volume by Mr. McConnell, one of the earlier residents of Jacksonville, has been written by John Kearns.

It is not without some misgivings that I have undertaken to review a book of the sort of Mr. McConnell's for the reason that my bent for research is not in that direction. Not that I have not reviewed books before—some without having read them first, as is the common practice in newspaper offices. But not this one. I read this one thru carefully. In fact, I had jumped at the conclusion, that here was something in a nutshell, and that I would get the cream—well, that is an abominable mixture of metaphors, but it is intended to mean that I was elated at the prospect of getting so much out of the investment of time required to read it.

The book proved to be as estimated—almost too much so. But now if you think that because I claim little familiarity with its subject in the first place, that I am going to dismiss it with mere general praises of its literary style, you are mistaken. I expect to praise it some, as in my estimation, it deserves it—not so much however, because I am painfully aware that nowadays books are generally damned, not by faint praise, but by overpraise.

In the first place, the author has allowed himself altogether too little space to treat some very important affairs. Some of them are hardly treated, merely suggested. For the reader who is well posted in history and politics, with a fund of information derived from collateral reading and study, this would prove to be a very lucid book. But for the reader who is not so fortunate, it will either exasperate him with its brevity, or send him to other volumes for more adequate treatment of the matters that seem to appear here only to excite his curiosity.

The aim of the book, as the preface says, is to put the reader, the citizen, in sympathetic touch with the spirit of political development, as regards electing our presidents. By sympathetic, I take it that the author means some sort of approval of its methods. But alas, the story of our political development is nothing to be proud of, generally speaking, and the farther you go into details, the worse the stench. It ought to be clear that, while no one ought to neglect the story of our political development, and the lessons to be derived from it, that he must look elsewhere for something to inspire the right kind of pride in his native land. Pride in our country, pride in our state, pride in our county and city, we ought to have. But for any one who entertains high ideals of personal probity and honor, or any vision at all of the ultimate glory of the nation, the study of politics is worse than no nourishment at all.

As for myself, the effect of the book was quite otherwise than what the author probably intended. Steeped in the method and manner of elections, during his long following of newspaper work, the author has come to regard the practices he details as not only commonplace, but necessary. He seems to entertain no ideal as to what it all trends, or what may in time grow out of it all—if indeed, out of corruption can come incorruption. If he really thinks so, it is a slow process, and one puts down the rather short and spicy book with the feeling—as regards the state, not the book—that in all these years we have accomplished so little. Thirty odd political campaigns pulled off, and nothing done yet—politically speaking, you understand me to mean.

Of course, this is a rather pessimistic view of the situation, and the antidote perhaps is to be found in one of the author's closing sentences to the effect that, never yet has the election system placed a really bad man in the presidents' seat. And the fact that eight of them were seated in the face of the popular majorities for the other side, would perhaps argue against the virtue of popular majorities, or popular election at all. It might even argue for the presumption of right generally in the minority.

However, it is easier to quarrel with a book, than to write one—one like this, at any rate. It must have taken a lot of delving into dusty records, and poring over columns of election figures, to get the results given here in a few pages. And while there is a matter-of-factness about his chronicle of selfish ambitions and political greed, there is a sort of redemption in the manner in which he dwells upon any point of idealism, political self-sacrifice, or devotion to a cause in the face of obstacles—the book is redeemed, indeed, by the time and attention he condescends to bestow upon the few examples of the sort in its pages.

In fact, the examples he gives are perhaps heightened by their contrast against the eternal background of sordidness. Such episodes—as, for example, John Quincy Adams' honesty and home pride, and Van Buren's deliberate and repeated self-sacrifice for his convictions—such episodes sparkle like a drop of dew in a thirsty desert, which the author strives to collect as if they might be diamonds, to fix forever in the memories of men as imperishable eruptions of public conduct, the while they are lost in the heated air of personal ambition and selfishness which blows eternally over the Sahara of politics. Still, there are some things on which I beg to take issue with him. Not the style of the book either, but its partisanship. I suppose you would say. And that, remembering that no such book as this could possibly be written in a wholly impartial manner—it would be unreasonable to expect it, and the results would be far from satisfactory in other ways.

But I cannot fathom his disparagement of Jefferson, any more than his adulation of John Quincy Adams and Van Buren. His treatment of Van Buren would argue that he entertains more respect for the deference paid to ancient agreements and obligations, because they are such, than for vital changes as a result of growth that is the inevitable order of all things. Is this their only crime, these emergencies, that they were without precedent? Therefore, rather than afford them any encouragement to develop in natural ways, must he needs oppose them unconditionally, holding out for the letter of the law, and thereby oblige them to be born in violence? I mention these questions particularly, because it is the history of certain changes of policy that they have been born in violence, often because of the short-sightedness and opposition of those in power, who are devoted to the old order. And, right now other changes, other reforms, are overdue, because of the conservatism of the old parties, the insatiable greed of the money power, and the determined opposition of those who regard private property as a God-given trust upon this earth.

And so it might be somehow else than as probity or statesmanship that another historian would characterize Van Buren's attitude towards the New Brunswick boundary quarrel, or the rebellion in Canada, or the efforts of Texas to gain admission into the union. Indeed it might be classed as a sort of leaning back towards imperialism, and thereby to be condemned in the estimation of a progressive people, striving to archy and to keep the direction of an ideal republic.

The One-Ton Truck

The Ford One-Ton Truck first made its appeal to the farmer and the merchant because of the merits of Ford Cars. And it made its wonderful reputation and great sales record because it lived up to every claim made for it.

The reliable Ford Motor, the special Ford steel chassis, the aluminum bronze worm-drive, all combine to produce a truck of unusual power, capacity and strength—a truck that lasts in service; a truck that solves the haulage problem at a very small operating and upkeep expense. Hence the demand for the Ford One-Ton Truck is constantly on the increase.

For the good of your business, whether it be farming, merchandising or manufacturing, you should come in and look over the Ford One-Ton Truck—NOW!

IMPORTANT

We are prepared to furnish the Ford Truck equipped either with Standard or Special Gearing. The Standard Gearing gives the truck a maximum of power. The Special Gearing increases the speed of the truck from five to seven miles an hour, converting it into a Fast Delivery Car.

How Steam Behaves

Observation of a boiling teakettle impresses the fact that "steam rises" without any apparent force behind it. This is Nature's gift to the science of heating. Steam flows through the piping system with little, if any, pressure behind it. The uniform, even and always ready heat from a steam boiler is accounted for in this scientifically established fact. Which is only one of the many reasons why "Heat by Radiators" is the most satisfactory, convenient and economical.

There's plenty of action and a lively fight between the Scouts and the street boys and in the end the street boys join the troop and become useful, patriotic scouts. The story is written and directed by James Wilder, who plays the part of Troop leader. It is expected that this picture will increase the interest in our Boy Scouts of Jacksonville and a large attendance is looked for. The admission is twenty-five cents. IN A HEAVY MARKET GRAIN PRICES SAGGED

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—In a heavy market grain prices sagged and provisions barely held their ground, but the Chicago Board of Trade today. At the finish wheat was 1/2 to 1 1/2¢ net lower, corn was off 1/2 to 3/4¢ and oats were 1/2 to 3/4¢ lower. Wheat started with a weak undertone and there was an early break when a trade rumor of a moratorium in Germany was denied. The drop attracted some buying but the trade fell away and the second hour saw little variance in prices.

Just before the close shorts covered on reports of a stronger cash market in Winnipeg with advice that Argentina returns indicated about a normal crop instead of the big yield that some traders had looked for. This movement was short lived and prices sagged again at the close.

Corn was under pressure but resisted fairly well because of continued export demand and the fact that outside markets were outbidding Chicago in the cash market. The seller pointed to increased country offerings and predicted increased arrivals for next week.

Oats were a bit duller than is usual for Saturday and merely followed corn.

Provisions were quiet. Only a few scattered holdings were offered.
